SACHI SNAIL'S "TELL A STORY"

Create a story in 10 pictures. Use your favorite toys to tell:

- an adventure story with rivers to cross, mountains to climb, or helicopters to fly.
- a story about being brave even when you're scared.
- a superhero story with capes and masks and lots of action!
- a story about you, including all your favorite things.

HENRY HEDGEHOG'S REFLECTIONS & SHADOWS

Take 5 photos of reflections and 5 photos of shadows.

Look for interesting reflections on smooth, shiny surfaces, like glass, metal, or water. On bright, sunny days, you'll find shadows when you step outside, or you can create shadows with a lamp or flashlight.

If you can print your photos, arrange them in a collage. Move the pictures around until you find the collage that you like best.

LIANA LLAMA'S BE A PAPARAZZI!

The important part of learning photography is picking up your camera every day. You'll be amazed at how much your skills grow in just 30 days! Use Liana's photo suggestions below (or create a list of your own). Each day, take one picture of:

GILEAD GECKO'S SILLY SELFIES

Turn the camera on you! Make a funny face, close your eyes, and click the shutter! Gilead calls these photos "happy accidents," because you're never sure what you captured until you open your eyes. Silly Selfies are the perfect way to cheer yourself up on a hard day. So close your eyes and click away!
