

23 PROMISES FOR PARENTS

Parenting can be overwhelming when our child has chronic illness, mental illness, chronic pain, or disability. But God sees us and cares deeply for us. On the long days and sleepless nights, it's good to remember that we are doing the work He has called us to. He walks with us, strengthens us, and encourages us in everything, promising that with Him nothing [is or ever] shall be impossible. (Luke 1:37 AMP)

VERSES OF ENCOURAGEMENT, STRENGTH, AND PEACE

Don't be afraid, for I am with you. Don't be discouraged, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will hold you up with my victorious right hand. (Isaiah 41:10)

These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. (Deuteronomy 6:6-7)

Do what is good. Set an example for them in everything. When you teach, be honest and serious. No one can question the truth. So teach what is true. (Titus 2:6-7 NIRV)

For God is working in you, giving you the desire and the power to do what pleases him. (Philippians 2:13)

Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a reward from him. (Psalm 127:3)

... don't provoke your children to anger, but raise them with discipline and instruction about the Lord. (Ephesians 6:4 CEB)

I will teach all your children, and they will enjoy great peace. (Isaiah 54:13)

The Lord is my strength and shield. I trust him with all my heart. He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy. I burst out in songs of thanksgiving. (Psalm 28:7)

And God will generously provide all you need. Then you will always have everything you need and plenty left over to share with others. (2 Corinthians 9:8)

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

So let's not get tired of doing what is good. At just the right time we will reap a harvest of blessing if we don't give up. (Galatians 6:9)

If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault. (James 1:5)

Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go. (Joshua 1:9)

Work willingly at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people. Remember that the Lord will give you an inheritance as your reward, and that the Master you are serving is Christ. (Colossians 3:23-24)

I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me. (Philippians 4:13 NKJV)

May the favor of the Lord our God rest on us; establish the work of our hands for us— yes, establish the work of our hands. (Psalm 90:17)

... choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve ... But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord. (Joshua 24:15)

Let your roots grow down into him, and let your lives be built on him. Then your faith will grow strong in the truth you were taught, and you will overflow with thankfulness. (Colossians 2:7)

Above all, have fervent and unfailing love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins [it overlooks unkindness and unselfishly seeks the best for others]. (1 Peter 4:8 AMP)

Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 19:14 ESV)

But those who trust in the Lord will find new strength. They will soar high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint. (Isaiah 40:31)

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs ... It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. (1 Corinthians 13:4-7)

Search me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts. See if there is any offensive way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. (Psalm 139:23-24)
