HANDWRITTEN WITH LOVE
15 PRAYERS TO SHARE

Sometimes, a prayer says it all. Handwrite these heartfelt prayers on a card, pair them with a favorite verse, and personalize your note to bless a friend or loved one with intentional words of comfort, encouragement, and compassion.

JOY THAT SUSTAINS

When joy feels distant or fragile, may God gently restore it within you—not as fleeting happiness, but as deep and sustaining strength. May His joy meet you in ordinary and difficult places, carrying you through each day rising with hope. Amen.

ANCHORED IN LOVE

When life feels tangled and overwhelming, may God flood you with peace and anchor you in His love. May He refresh you with joy after sorrow, hope in loss, and mercies new every morning. In His Son's name, amen.

TENDER COMPASSION

May God shape you to be tender and gentle, patient and kind. May He help you walk through this world with eyes of compassion—seeing beyond others' words and actions to who He created them to be. In Jesus' name, Amen.

A HEART LIKE GOD'S

May God form in you a heart like His—kind, tender, compassionate, and caring. May He give you a servant's heart that beats for His glory, marvels at His beauty, radiates His goodness, and overflows with deep joy. Amen.

DEARLY LOVED, COMPLETELY KNOWN

When fear nips at your heels, and anxiety weighs heavily on your heart, we pray you will sense God's invitation to simply Come—just as you are, dearly loved, and completely known. Amen.

REST FOR THE WEARY SOUL

When your soul feels tired, and your strength feels thin, may God meet you with rest that reaches deeper than sleep. May He quiet what is racing within you, restore what has been drained, and remind you that you are held. May His presence become your true rest. Amen.

HEARING GOD'S WHISPER

May God capture your heart, teach you His ways, and draw you closer breath by breath, until you recognize His voice each time He whispers your name. Amen.

HEARTS AND HOMES OF PRAYER

May your heart and home grow into an ever-widening place of prayer for those you know and love, those you struggle with, and those God lays on your heart. In His Son's name, Amen.

A REVERENCE THAT RUNS DEEP

May God saturate you with a holy and desperate reverence for Him, for His Word, and for His people. In Jesus' name, Amen.

BREATH BY BREATH

We pray that you are drawn into God's presence, peace, and holy awe, breath by breath and day by day. Amen

COURAGE FOR THIS MOMENT

When courage feels fragile, and your heart feels unsure, may God meet you right where you are. May He steady your spirit, strengthen your resolve, and remind you that you never walk alone. May His courage rise within you—enough for this moment, and enough for today. Amen.

LIGHT FOR THE NEXT STEP

When the way forward feels unclear and the future remains unwritten, may God place just enough light before you for the next faithful step. May He steady your heart, strengthen your trust, and guide you with wisdom and peace—one step, one breath, one day at a time. Amen.

PEACE IN THE WAITING

When answers feel delayed, and waiting feels heavy, may God settle your heart with His peace. May He help you trust His timing (even when it is hard to understand) and find rest in His presence while you wait. Amen.

HELD IN GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

When circumstances feel uncertain, and the ground beneath you feels unsteady, may God hold you fast in His faithfulness. May His promises anchor your soul, His love surround you, and His presence remind you that you are secure in Him. Amen.

GRACE UPON GRACE

We pray you will rest in God's deep love for you, know His rich mercy, and feel wrapped in His grace upon grace upon grace. Amen.
